

Facebook Group Urges Old Dutch Boycott!

In the age of internet chatter and Twitter, it is no surprise that individuals of good conscience have gone to Facebook to talk about and promote the Old Dutch boycott.

Go to Facebook to join the boycott Old Dutch group... it has over 1,000 members already and is growing!

By the way, please remember that some generic potato chip brands at supermarkets are really just Old Dutch chips hiding behind labels like President's Choice and Safeway Blue Label.

If there is any doubt, contact a UFCW office.
